

RIIWHS202D

Enter and Work in Confined Spaces

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Provide students with the ability to plan and prepare for entry of confined spaces, exiting confined spaces and clean up.

PERSONS WHO WOULD BENEFIT FROM THIS COURSE

Appropriate for those working in confined space (enclosed or partially enclosed) for the purpose of carrying out work or inspections and also is appropriate for those performing sentry or stand-by person roles, at worksites within:

- Coal mining
- Extractive industries
- Metalliferous mining

COURSE CONTENT

- Legislative, organisation and site requirements and procedures
- Operational, maintenance and basic diagnostic procedures
- Materials handling methods
- Use of atmospheric monitoring devices
- Interpreting JSA's/Safe work method statements
- Site and equipment safety requirements
- Confined space entry and exit procedures, risks and regulations
- Air contaminants and toxic gases
- Breathing apparatus limitations
- Equipment types, characteristics, technical capabilities and limitations
- Site isolation and site control responsibilities and authorities
- Materials safety data sheets (MSDS)
- Project quality requirements
- Industry terminology
- State and territory interpretations of a confined space

ASSESSMENT

Group activities
Knowledge assessment
Practical assessment

CUSTOMISE COURSE

Driveway Training can customise courses to meet the demands of workplace for companies.

Please contact our office for an appointment to develop a strategy to meet your needs.

DELIVERY

Face to face.

COURSE DURATION

1 day: Theory and practical application.

AWARD

RIIWHS202D Enter and work in confined spaces.

COURSE DELIVERY DATES

Please contact our office on (07) 4725 0354.

COURSE FEE

Please contact our office on (07) 4725 0354 for a current course price.